Respected Sir,

I am writing this letter to convey my honest gratitude and genuine appreciation to you for sponsoring my studies. Your scholarship is priceless and will definitely help me in my educational endeavors. And I am profoundly thankful for your help.

I am presently pursuing my honors in chemistry. I am completing my first year of honors. And now I am in second year of honors. The monetary help you offered facilitates me to pay for my learning costs. It also helps me to devote more of time for serious studying and achieve my goal. And I want to give regular updates about my studies and exam. Now, my third semester is going on. When my exam will be completed and I will get my third semester result I will definitely share it with you sir.

Thank you once again Sir for your bounteousness and assistance. And for update purpose I will give you the routine of my third semester exam. I guarantee you that I will make use of this opportunity to study really hard and to win a successful career. I am trying to give my best knowledge to my little brothers and sisters through the tuition. Your kind favour motivates me to do so. I will definitely continue this helping work for others in future.

Yours Sincerely
Devlina Samigrahi
