

Dear,Mr Angshu sett.

Hope you and your family are doing well and having nice days by the grace of the almighty. Me and my family are also safe and sound.

Myself prabhati Mondal. I'm studying as a undergraduate (1st year)student in journalism honours at Khudiram Bose Central college, Kolkata. This college is highly requted and I feel very lucky to be student I want to be a journalist in future.

This year I visited 'Swami Vivekananda house' the house of the greatest man Swami Vivekananda. Initially I was very executed and entering the house. I saw many creations of Vivekanandas.Then we saw each books, novels, dress used by him and come upon the history of this house.We enjoyed the peaceful ambience.

I am also interested in doing social works. After getting established me too want to help the Needy students so that they do not have to face difficulties to continue their studies.Without your help and support it was never possible to continue my study

Thank you being bye my side in all the time. I am grateful to you and Mukti. I pray for you and your family's good health.

your lovingly
Probhati
